

AMInstitute 2010 National Golf Day

Friday 30th July – Links Hope Island Golf Course
Hope Island Road, Sanctuary Cove, Queensland

Restoration of a Great Tradition

AICUM carved out an enduring tradition of interstate rivalries through the annual National Conference Golf Championship between 1983 and 2005 which in turn carried on under the AMInstitute banner through to 2008.

Whilst theories abound and stories unfold around the states as to why this tradition took a breather during the past two years the main driver was the degree of difficulty associated with securing access to the desired standard of golf course facilities within a reasonable distance of the National Conference Centre in Canberra on a Sunday in March.

The solution became obvious – repackage the National Golf Championship with the AMInstitute 2010 Leadership Development Conference being held in Sanctuary Cove Queensland on 31st July and 1st August and secure access to the highly accredited Links Hope Island Golf Course on Friday 30th July.

So yes the National Golf Championship tradition is back on in 2010.....

AMInstitute 2010 National Golf Championship Day – All About the Event & Our Charity Partner

The National Golf Championship Day provides a great opportunity for credit union and building society leaders and industry suppliers to play golf and network in a relaxing environment whilst also contributing to the valuable work of our charity partner Credit Union Foundation of Australia (CUFA).

Funds will be raised during the day via a $10 contribution drawn from each player's registration fee and during lunch when a game of heads and tails will help fill the "fines bracket". Players are asked to stock up on change for the monetary fines of $2 per player for: -

- any group three putting a green
- any group not selecting a ball on the fairway off any tee
- any group scoring an eagle or hole-in-one

The Program for the day will unfold as follows:-

7.30am – Arrival, Registration & Sponsored Breakfast
8.30am – Tee-off Four Ball Ambrose with a shot gun start
1.15pm – Buffet Lunch in the Clubhouse
1.45pm – The Presentation

All About the Links Hope Island Golf Course

Hope Island and Sanctuary Cove are both situated around midway between Brisbane and Gold Coast Airports – a 45 minute drive (65kms) or around 20kms north of Surfers Paradise. Refer to the AMInstitute website – Leadership Development Conference banner for details about Sanctuary Cove Travel Options.

The Links Hope Island Course is reminiscent of the great courses of Britain and Scotland, this is golf in the finest traditions of the game. "The Links" course at Hope Island has been rated Australia's number one resort course. Designed by five times British Open Champion, Peter Thomson and his partner Mike Wolveridge, "The Links" is a golfers' delight. The undulating fairways wind through natural wetlands, tussock fringed roughs and bunkers that seem to be shaped by natural forces. Each hole is unique and offers the player a different perspective of the course, incorporating both natural and man made hazards. The traditional atmosphere recreated when playing at Hope Island Resort Golf Club doesn't end with the last putt. The magnificent Mediterranean style Clubhouse offers an idyllic place to relax with a drink after a game.

Links Hope Island Golf Club is pleased to present the latest in technology with the installation of the Global Positioning Satellite System (GPS) in each electric golf cart. This system gives a full aerial view of each hole as you arrive to the tee, and also shows the position of the player in respect to the tees, bunkers and greens via satellite. These are only a few of this systems many features.

A transfer service will be provided from Sanctuary Cove Resort to the Links Golf Course on the morning of the 30th July and for a return to the resort following the presentation.
